

SOHO Central Europe 2026

| FRIDAY: MPN, AML, MDS, CLL & Lymphoma                                                 |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| SESSION I MPN & CML October 9, Friday, 09:30-11:10 Chair: A. Hussain & J. Apperley    |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 09:30                                                                                 | Opening remarks                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 09:40                                                                                 | When the Guidelines don't Help!                                                                           | Jane Apperley           | Hammersmith, UK                           |
| 09:55                                                                                 | Why, when and in whom to stop CML treatment safely                                                        | Jiri Mayer              | Masaryk Univ. Brno, CZ                    |
| 10:10                                                                                 | Between Risk and Reality: The haemostatic problem in MPN                                                  | Alizadeh Hussain        | Univ. Pécs, HU                            |
| 10:25                                                                                 | Clinical scenarios: hemostatic challenges in MPN                                                          | Drazen Pulanic          | Univ. Zagreb, HR                          |
| 10:40-11:10                                                                           | DISCUSSION                                                                                                |                         |                                           |
| SESSION II AML October 9, Friday, 11:10-12:55. Chair: Árpád Bátai & Naval Daver       |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 11:10                                                                                 | TBA                                                                                                       | Naval Daver             | MDAnderson, Houston, USA                  |
| 11:25                                                                                 | Assessment of fitness and therapeutic options in unfit AML patients                                       | Mirta Mikulic           | Univ. Zagreb, HR                          |
| 11:40                                                                                 | The role of HSCT in first CR                                                                              | Árpád Bátai             | Szt. László Hosp., HU                     |
| 11:55                                                                                 | Managing FLT3 mutant AML                                                                                  | Gabriel Ghiaur          | Hopkins/Bucharest, RO / USA               |
| 12:10                                                                                 | Management of AML in patients unfit for aggressive treatment.                                             | Matevž Škerget          | Med. Center Ljubljana, SL                 |
| 12:25-12:55                                                                           | DISCUSSION                                                                                                |                         |                                           |
| 13:00                                                                                 | LUNCH SYMPOSIUM 13:20 – 14:20                                                                             |                         |                                           |
| SESSION III CLL October 9, Friday, 14:20-16:05. Chair: Róbert Szász & Othman Al-Sawaf |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 14:20                                                                                 | TBA                                                                                                       | Othman Al-Sawaf         | Univ.Cologne, D                           |
| 14:35                                                                                 | Firstline Fixed duration Therapies                                                                        | Róbert Szász            | Univ Debrecen, HU                         |
| 14:50                                                                                 | 1)Prophylaxis of infectious complications in patients with CLL 2)Treatment of RR CLL                      | Iwona Hus               | Univ.Lublin, Poland                       |
| 15:05                                                                                 | The Richter transformation; are there any changes in 2026?                                                | Sandra Basic-Kinda      | Univ. Zagreb, HR                          |
| 15:20                                                                                 | Treatment of chronic lymphocytic leukemia in the near future                                              | Michael Doubek          | Univ. Hosp. Brno, Cz                      |
| 15:35-16:05                                                                           | DISCUSSION                                                                                                |                         |                                           |
| SESSION IV MDS October 9, Friday, 16:05-17:50. Chair: Viktor Lakatos & Varun Mehra    |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 16:05                                                                                 | Updates in diagnostics/immunobiological understanding and impact of prognostic scoring in decision making | Varun Mehra             | Kings College Hosp. London                |
| 16:20                                                                                 | Non-transplant treatment strategies of high-risk MDS                                                      | Inga Mandac-Smoljanovic | Merkur Hosp., Zagreb, HR                  |
| 16:35                                                                                 | Pre- and post-transplant strategies to improve outcomes of HSCT for MDS                                   | Viktor Lakatos          | St. László Hosp. HU                       |
| 16:50                                                                                 | HSCT in MDS, indications, outcomes, strategies                                                            | Alina Tanase            | Instit. Clinic Fundeni, Bucharest, RO     |
| 17:05                                                                                 | Low-risk MDS therapy - advances in recent years                                                           | Anna Jonasova           | Charles Univ., Prague, Cz                 |
| 17:20-17:50                                                                           | DISCUSSION                                                                                                |                         |                                           |
| 17:50 Coffee break: 17:50-18:10                                                       |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| SESSION V ind. NHL & MCL October 9, Friday, 18:10-19:55. Chair: A. Masszi & I. Aurer  |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |
| 18:10                                                                                 | Treatment of HL in 2026                                                                                   | Igor Aurer              | Univ. Zagreb, HR                          |
| 18:25                                                                                 | Frontline therapy of MCL                                                                                  | Wojciech Jurczak        | National Research Inst. Oncol, Krakow, PL |
| 18:40                                                                                 | Frontline treatment of FL                                                                                 | András Masszi           | Oncol Inst. Budapest, HU                  |
| 18:55                                                                                 | Treatment landscape of R/R FL in 2026                                                                     | Vít Procházka           | Univ. Hosp., Olomouc, Cz                  |
| 19:10                                                                                 | Management of R/R MCL in 2026                                                                             | Pavel Klener            | Charles Univ., Prague, Cz                 |
| 19:25-19:55                                                                           | DISCUSSION                                                                                                |                         |                                           |
| 19:55 – 20:55 EVENING SYMPOSIUM //                                                    |                                                                                                           |                         |                                           |

|                                                                                                         |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| SATURDAY: BM failure, PNH, ALL, Cellular therapy, MM, LBCL                                       |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| SESSION VI BM failure &amp; PNH October 10, Saturday 08:00-09:30; Chair: I.Bodó &amp; M. Griffin |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| 08:00                                                                                                   | Approach to classic PNH in 2026                                    | Imre Bodó              | Semmelweis Univ, Budapest             |
| 08:15                                                                                                   | The failing bone marrow and PNH                                    | Morag Griffin          | St. James Hos. Leeds, UK              |
| 08:30                                                                                                   | Severe aplastic anemia in 2026                                     | Phil Scheinberg        | Sao Jose Hosp, Sao Paulo, Brazil      |
| 08:45                                                                                                   | HSCT for TBD-related BM failure Syndromes: Progress and challenges | Pál Szabolcs           | UPMC Children's Hosp. Pittsburgh, USA |
| 09:00-09:30                                                                                             | DISCUSSION                                                         |                               |                                       |
| SESSION VII ALL October 10, Saturday 09:30-11:50; Chair: Zsolt Nagy &amp; Nicola Gökbüget        |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| 09:30                                                                                                   | How to improve outcome of T-ALL                                    | Nicola Gökbüget        | University of Frankfurt, D            |
| 09:45                                                                                                   | Evolving paradigms of the treatment of adults with B-cell Ph- ALL  | Sebastian Giebel       | Gliwice, PL                           |
| 10:00                                                                                                   | Ph+ ALL in 2026                                                    | Zsolt Nagy             | Semmelweis Univ, Budapest, HU         |
| 10:15                                                                                                   | TBA                                                                | Zinaida Peric          | Clinical Hosp.Ctr, Rijeka, HR         |
| 10:30-11:50                                                                                             | DISCUSSION                                                         |                               |                                       |
| 11:50 LUNCH SYMPOSIUM 11:50 – 12:50                                                              |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| SESSION VIII Cellular ther. October 10, Saturday 12:50-14:35; Chair: K. Kállay &amp; J. DiPersio |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| 12:50                                                                                                   | Can AML and T-ALL be effectively treated with CAR-T?               | John DiPersio          | Washington Univ. STL, MO, US          |
| 13:05                                                                                                   | Virus-specific T-cell therapies                                    | Krisztián Kállay       | Szt.László Hosp, Budapest             |
| 13:20                                                                                                   | Role of cellular therapies in the management of MCL                | Ciprian Tomuleasa      | Chiricuta Cancer Ctr, Cluj, RO        |
| 13:35                                                                                                   | Infectious complications after CAR-T cell therapy                  | Lidia Gil              | Medical Univ, Poznan PL               |
| 13:50                                                                                                   | TBA                                                                | Matjaz Sever           | Med. Center Ljubljana, SL             |
| 14:05-14:35                                                                                             | DISCUSSION                                                         |                               |                                       |
| SESSION IX MM October 10, Saturday 14:35-16:05; Chair: Gergely Varga &amp; Gábor Mikala          |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| 14:35                                                                                                   | Current praxis: focus on engaging T-cells (bispecifics and CAR)    | Roman Hajek            | Univ. Hospital Ostrava, CZ            |
| 14:50                                                                                                   | Down with Dex!                                                     | Gergely Varga          | Semmelweis Univ. HU                   |
| 15:05                                                                                                   | Supportive care in multiple myeloma                                | Artur Jurczynszyn      | Jagellonian Univ. PL                  |
| 15:20                                                                                                   | Small molecules in the Era of immune therapies                     | Gábor Mikala           | Semmelweis Univ. HU                   |
| 15:35-16:05                                                                                             | DISCUSSION                                                         |                               |                                       |
| COFFEE BREAK 16:05-16:25                                                                         |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| SESSION X LBCL October 9, Friday, 16:25-17:55. Chair: Gergely Lajos &amp; Marek Trněný           |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
| 16:25                                                                                                   | First line DLBCL Therapy: Choosing Wisely                          | Marek Trněný           | Charles Univ, Prague, CZ              |
| 16:40                                                                                                   | TBA                                                                | Gergely Lajos          | Univ. Debrecen, HU                    |
| 16:55                                                                                                   | Treatment of R/R LBCL: what to do after 2nd line failure?          | Lubos Drgona           | Comenius Univ, Bratislava             |
| 17:10                                                                                                   | TBA                                                                | Monika Dlugosz-Danecka | Krakow, PL                            |
| 17:25-17:55                                                                                             | DISCUSSION                                                         |                               |                                       |
| CLOSING REMARKS                                                                                  |                                                                    |                               |                                       |
|                                                                                                         |                                                                    |                               |                                       |